

Datebook Open

All campus organizations are asked to sign into the datebook for next semester's social events, according to Don Ryan, Student Activities Board chairman. The new datebook is now available in the Student Activities Office, Room 114. Protective date status will be given to organizations on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Thanks to Sophs

Dean Harclerod and the General Education Committee have expressed their thanks to the sophomores for their cooperation in taking the Area Tests in General Education. Of the 776 students eligible to take these tests, 700 completed them. When the scores are available, students are invited to pick up report slips at the office of the Dean of Instruction.

Full Program of Events On Alumni Day Agenda

Departmental Reunions, Fallico Speech Will Highlight Day-Long Activities

Alumni from all over California and from many other parts of the United States will converge at SJS tomorrow for the annual Spring Alumni Day, which will begin about 1 p.m.

A full program of events has been planned by the Alumni Board of Directors according to Miss Peggy Major, head of the campus Alumni Office. One of the highlights of the afternoon will be the Faculty concert which will begin at 3 p.m. and feature selections from Faculty concerts held throughout the past year.

Dr. Arturo B. Fallico will deliver a talk entitled "The Role of the Non-Conformist in a Democratic Society," at the banquet which will be held at Exposition Hall of the Santa Clara County Fairgrounds at 6 p.m. The Men's Glee Club will sing a number of songs at the banquet and music will be provided by Bob Russell and his orchestra. The Rev. Mr. John M. Galagan of St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Santa Clara will give the invocation.

An informal cocktail hour will precede the banquet at 5 p.m.

Following the daytime registration at 1:30 p.m., the Spartan Spears and Spartan Shields will lead guided tours of the campus. At the registration area a large map of the campus showing new buildings and those under construction will be shown. Tours have been planned for the Chapel, Speech and Drama, Engineering, Women's P.E., Men's P.E., Music Building and the Spartan Shop.

An innovation this year, which Miss Major feels will meet with Alumni approval, will be Departmental reunions. Most departments of the college have planned special programs for alumni who majored in the department.

Another new feature of tomorrow's program is the Expanded Board of Directors Luncheon, which will be attended by the Alumni directors, and former Senior Class and ASB Presidents.

During the luncheon a discussion period will be held. The idea behind the luncheon is to get former student leaders interested in Alumni problems and to acquaint them with the goals and planning of the Alumni Association.

The movie about San Jose State, which was scheduled to be shown, has not been completed, and cannot be shown. The time which was allotted to the showing of the film will be taken up with get-togethers and expanded tours, according to Miss Major.

Exact number of Alumni, who will attend the event, is not known but it has been estimated that between 350 and 600 will take part in the all day program.

Annual Senior Ball To Feature Paris Theme Tomorrow

The Parisian touch will be presented at the Senior Ball tomorrow night when 600 seniors will attend the semester's end dance at the Bay Meadows Turf Club in San Mateo.

Presenting the theme of "Springtime in Paris," the dance will get under way at 9 p.m.

Dave Pell's orchestra will furnish the danceable rhythms for seniors and their dates. Pell, usually heading an act, has increased the size of his orchestra to 10 for the affair.

Songstress Marcel Miller will do the vocal honors for the seniors. Intermission entertainment will be handled by the "Metronomes" and the "Hightones."

A group of SJS students make up the Metronomes and the Hightones are a professional group from Palo Alto.

The dance is formal, according to ball chairman Al Hahn, with dark suits for men acceptable.

The Turf Club, according to Hahn, may be reached by following Bayshore highway north for approximately 30 miles. Turn off at Hillside Boulevard. After crossing back over the highway, continue for five blocks, then turn right.

Readers To Vie

Students from the oral reading classes will compete for the semi-annual Dorothy Kaucher reading award in the Studio Theater at 3:30 p.m. today. The competition is open to the public and refreshments will be served.

Dick To Present Recital Tonight

Robert Dick, a graduate student who will receive his Master of Arts degree during the summer, will give his master's recital tonight at 8:15 p.m. in the Concert Hall.

Dick received his A.B. degree at the Central Washington College in 1953, and then taught music for two years at Brookings, Ore., before enrolling at SJS.

The recital will include "French Suite in E Major," by Bach; "Sonata, Op. 78 in F Sharp Major," by Beethoven; "Trois Pieces, Op. 59," by Prokofiev; and "Ballade, op. 47 in A Flat," by Chopin. The performance is open to the public. There will be no admission charge.

Vatcher Address

Dr. William Vatcher will address the Student Democrats of Santa Clara County tonight at 8 p.m. at the local Democratic headquarters, 16 N. Second St. Vatcher is a candidate for the 10th Congressional District Democratic nomination.

French Comedy 'Man of Ashes' To Start Five Day Run Tonight in College Theater

The United States premiere of "Man of Ashes," by Andre Obey, will open in the College Theater at 8:15 o'clock tonight. It also will be presented May 26, 31 and June 1 and 2.

This production, which is a French comedy, was translated by Dr. James Clancy, professor of drama. Dr. Clancy obtained the rights from Obey to produce this play in the United States. Dr. Clancy also is directing the show.

The settings for this Don Juan type production have been designed by Harrison McCreath, assistant professor of drama, and the 16th century costumes have been designed by Miss Bernice Prisk, associate professor of drama. Rollin Buckman, drama instructor, is handling the technical production.

Top Actor, Actress To Receive Awards

The annual Radio and Television Guild Awards Night will be held in the Studio Theater Thursday at 8:15 p.m.

Awards will be presented to the actor and actress of the year, and to the supporting actor and actress of the year in both radio and television.

The sound technician, of the year, the music technician of the year and the writer of the year in either radio or television also will be honored.

A Robert I. Guy Award will be presented to the student who has contributed the most to radio and television productions this year.

Special certificates of merit will be given to radio and television stations in this area which have aided the growth of SJS radio and TV endeavors.

As an added attraction, Guild members will present a live radio show entitled "The Witch Came COD." This program was written by Jim Ahern, last year's Robert I. Guy award winner. The program also will be aired over Radio station KEEN at 9:30 p.m. direct from the Studio Theater.

Grade Envelopes Now Available

Students wishing to have their grades mailed to them must self-address and stamp envelopes which may be obtained from the stand in front of the Registrar's Office. It was announced today.

Students are requested to use the envelopes supplied by the Registrar's Office for mailing. Only one envelope per student is necessary.

SJS Symphony Slates TV Debut

San Jose State's Symphony Orchestra will appear over KNTV, Channel 11, Sunday evening at 7 p.m. in its television debut. Gibson Walters will conduct the 65 student musicians who will perform. Robert I. Guy of the

LOU ANNE BONE

Speech and Drama Department will be TV director.

Soloists will be Lydia Boothby, harp; Lou Anne Bone, flute; and Jacqueline Rouleau, piano.

The orchestra seating and instrumental chairs have been re-grouped to meet the special requirements of television presentation, according to Walters.

Selections from the work of Brahms, Adair and Prokofiev will be played.

Library Schedule

The Library will be open Memorial Day, May 31, as a special service to students, according to Miss Joyce Backus, SJS librarian. The only change from regular week day hours is that the Reserve Book Room will open at 8 a.m., instead of at 7:30 a.m.

Committee Selects Outstanding Seniors

Sherry Nuernberg, and Vern Perry were honored today with recognition as the outstanding female and male senior students of the year. The Recognition Committee selected the pair for the annual award on the basis of the outstanding service which they compiled in their four years at San Jose State College.

Graduating Class Of 1116 Is Largest In History of SJS

The largest June graduating class in the history of the college, 1116 candidates, will receive their degrees at the commencement exercises Friday, June 8, at 4 p.m. in Spartan Stadium.

Following the president's report, Dr. John T. Wahlquist, president of San Jose State College, will confer 59 B.S. degrees, 974 A.B. degrees, 10 B.E. degrees, 71 M.A. degrees and 2 M.S. degrees.

The commencement address will be given by James Mussatti, general manager of the California State Chamber of Commerce. His subject will be, "The American Heritage." Mussatti is a member of the State Board of Education.

Baccalaureate exercises will be held in the Stadium at 4 p.m. on June 3. Rev. John T. Foudy, Ph.D., assistant superintendent of the Catholic schools in San Francisco, will speak on, "With Thy Whole Heart, With Thy Whole Soul, and With Thy Whole Mind."

Father Foudy is a graduate of the Catholic University of America, Washington D.C., and has been a leader in educational circles in the Bay Area for the past ten years.

Both ceremonies are open to the public.

Two Tie for First In Music Contest

A tie for first place in this year's creative music contest as announced by the SJS Music Department, has been won by William Purdy and Kay Raney, two SJS music majors.

Purdy won with his composition entitled "Concerto for Piano and Orchestra" and Raney's prize winning composition is called "Twelve Songs on Poems of Emily Dickinson." Second prize was awarded to Robert Brown for his song "The Pheasant."

Honorable mentioned were, in order, manuscripts submitted by Larry Dent, "Rondo;" Nathan Koblick, "Naivette;" Mary Lee Cline, "When;" Robert Brown, "Reverie;" Mary Lee Cline, "Suite for Two Pianos;" and Robert Brown, "Rain."

The judges' comments were unanimous in mentioning the consistent high calibre of workmanship, talent and originality of all the submitted works.

Delevoryas To Present San Francisco Recital

John Delevoryas, SJS assistant professor of music, will present a piano recital at the Century Club in San Francisco tonight at 8:30 p.m.

The program will include Bach's "Chromatic Fantasy and Fugue in D Minor," Mozart's "Fantasia in C Minor," Brahms' "Variations on a Theme of Paganini" and three Chopin compositions: "Etude in B Major" and "Fantasy in F Minor."

The pianist's career began at the age of 15 years when he won the Community Concert auditions in Massachusetts, and was presented in a recital at the Springfield Museum of Fine Arts. An honor graduate of the University of Massachusetts, he also holds B.S. and M.S. degrees from the Juilliard School of Music, where he was voted the outstanding pianist of his class and presented with a coveted Rosenberg and Loeb prizes.

In 1949 Delevoryas was selected by the Schumann Music Foundation to make a nationwide concert tour under its auspices, but declined the offer in order to accept an appointment to the faculty of the Juilliard Preparatory Division, where he taught piano from 1949 until 1955.

The committee, headed by Gail Wood, also honored Jim Cottrell and Hank Ramp for outstanding work in their four years at State.

A total of 73 other students also were selected for recognition of their participation in student government and student activities during the past year.

Perry and Miss Nuernberg each will receive a wrist watch from Jules Bozzi's Jewelers and will have their names engraved on a perpetual plaque which hangs in the ASB office. They and the other students each will receive a certificate of merit.

All of the students were selected by the Recognition Committee on the basis of an objective point system which was approved by the Student Council. The points were attributed to school services. The selected persons were not judged on participation in any Greek social organization nor on the basis of their grades.

Miss Wood has announced that the students, whose names are listed on page four in today's Spartan Daily, may pick up their certificates Tuesday in the Student Union.

Seniors Celebrate At Adobe Lodge

Senior Day got off to a flying start yesterday at 1 p.m., Bermuda shorts and all, when seniors, free of classes for the afternoon, traveled to Adobe Creek Lodge to attend the Senior Day activities.

Seniors made good use of the sunshine and water, using the three pools made available to them by the lodge. Many of the seniors participated in games of softball, volleyball or horseshoes for good measure.

Dinner, served at 6 p.m. in the Supper Club, consisted of prime rib, tossed salad, hot buttered garlic French bread, corn-on-the-cob and ice cream.

Following dinner, seniors relaxed and danced in the Supper Club to the music of Bob Berry's seven-piece orchestra. Others, not getting enough of the great outdoors, danced in the Ivy Court to juke box music.

Professor Snarf, campus-renowned fictitious figure, was present for the activities. Professor Jack Holland assumed the role of the "Professor."

During that time, he concertized in New York and New England, playing on the Fine Arts series of museums, colleges and civic music organizations. He appeared as soloist with the Juilliard Symphony Orchestra, the New Symphony Orchestra of New York, the Babylon New York Symphony and with a staff orchestra on CBS radio and television, coast to coast.

In 1953 he performed Ravel's "Gaspard de la Nuit" and other selections on the Brooklyn Museum series. In a guest appearance at the Philadelphia Musical Academy in 1954 he premiered Julius Himmelman's "Second Piano Sonata, a lengthy and difficult contemporary work."

With his own piano quartet, in which his wife was the violinist, Delevoryas presented complete recitals for private parties and charity drives on Long Island estates. In 1934 he became a member of the orchestra of the New York City Center Opera Co., playing the piano parts in a series of Menotti Operas and Blitzstein's "Regina."

Congratulations

Today, the Recognition Committee announced their selections of the outstanding students of the year. To these students, we would like to say congratulations for outstanding service to this college. To quote an old phrase, you have done your work "above and beyond the call of duty."

The competition for these honors was very stiff, and the Recognition Committee exhibited fairness and good judgement in its selections. The students were chosen on an objective point system with emphasis being placed on their participation in activities.

During one's college career, it is commendable for a student to fulfill satisfactorily the requirements of his college courses, but when he can accomplish this task and participate in school activities at the same time, his efforts are worthy of great honors. The 73 students and the two outstanding seniors represent this type of student. We certainly are proud of their achievements and consider it a privilege to make the announcement concerning the awards in today's Recognition Issue.

These students have had a great part in making the activity program at SJS what it has been this past year. A great deal of planning was behind every school activity, and many of these students were the bulwarks in the organization of the events.

So, at this time we say thanks and congratulations to these students. We are proud of the past year at SJS, and likewise we are proud of their efforts.

What's Doing

By DON OSBORNE

The Purple Onion night club in San Francisco has a double-barreled act that's sure fire when it comes to tickling the intellectual funny-bone. On the same bill with Will Holt, the folk singer, is Jorie Remes, a truly sophisticated and blasé type of comedienne whose humor is definitely designed for those with IQ's above 120.

Her satirical impersonations of arch-type females is superb and her renditions of popular ballads is nothing short of hilarious. As for the glamour department, she's got plenty along those lines also. As a matter of fact I can't quite think of any requirements she's missing that you would normally find in an excellent comedienne.

Both performers present their acts at different times. Will Holt usually leading off with such tunes as one about a bed with "squeaking springs" and another about two New England dip-somaniacs, Jorie Remes follows Holt with a good fast patter about the life of a blasé city girl. Finally both she and Holt team up to close the act.

One of the best numbers they team-up on is a take-off on the now popular Rock and Roll music. Holt, strumming his guitar, sings some appropriately ridiculous lyrics while Jorie, perched on a piano, gets through some outlandish contortions in time with the music.

It looks as though Dave Brubeck and his quartet are home again. No matter how far the group seems to roam, they always manage to make it back to the Black Hawk sooner or later. Rumor has it that Dave owns a part interest in the night club.

However, a more logical explanation is that he first got his start at the "Hawk." A local disc-jockey noticed him and began pushing some of his records. They caught on in a hurry and consequently, not only did Dave win a name for himself and his group, but the Black Hawk also received some very good, free publicity. The owner likes to have Dave play at his place and Dave likes to play there. Sounds like a nice relationship. Especially since Dave's home is in the East Bay.

MUSCO ON SKIDS
It looks like Vido Musso, Ken-ton's old number one Sax man and one of the principal artists during the great Benny Goodman Swing Era, is really on the skids. Starting tonight he will be featured at the Avalon Ball Room, Sutter near Van Ness.

Unless the Avalon is planning to go "big-time" it's just not the place where one would expect to see good bands. The style of music played there usually is anything but good. When the band strikes up a fox-trot it sounds like a Latin-American medley and when they play a Latin-American medley it sounds just like a fox trot.

It seems hard to believe that Vido Musso could do this, so the optimistic conclusion would be that the Avalon is trying to catch up with the times.

One of the most interesting places in the city right now is at Green near Columbus and is called the Jazz Cellar. Owned by some local musicians the prices have remained sane and the music is interesting and good.

One of the nicest things they offer is a jam session every Sunday afternoon starting at 4 o'clock and running until about 7 o'clock that night. All of the artists are quite competent musicians and are constantly coming up with new methods or innovations. The best time to get there on a Sunday afternoon is about 6 o'clock since this gives them sufficient time to warm up to the subject.

THEATER EXCELLENT

As usual, the legitimate theater scene in the city is excellent. The two finest productions are "Silk Stockings" at the Curran and "Anastasia" at the Geary. Both close on Saturday night.

"Silk Stockings" is a fast-moving musical comedy which features the Broadway cast and music by Cole Porter. The leads are played by Don Ameche, Jan Sherwood and Gretchen Wyler.

Starring Viveca Lindfors and Eugene Leonovitch, "Anastasia" is an acceptable melodrama about a dowager empress and a girl who claims to be the youngest daughter of the czar.

Pianist John Delevoyas is scheduled to give a recital tonight at the Century Club. His selections include Bach's "Fantasy and Fugue," Mozart's "Fantasy in C minor," Prokofiev's "Visions Fugitives" Opus 22, Brahms' "Paganini Variations" and selections from Chopin's piano works.

A Los Angeles group of artists seem to have invaded the city with the "Turnabout Theater." The men responsible, Forman Brown, Harry Burnett and Richard Brandon, have kept this production alive in Los Angeles for 15 years and hope to have a profitable time of it in San Francisco. The show comes in two parts, the first being a puppet act and the latter a musical review. With all due respect to our Southern neighbors, I doubt that this sort of thing will make too much of a hit in the North.

Sparvets To Hold Steak Fry Sunday

Members of the Sparvets and their guests will gather at Sea Cliff Park Sunday morning at 10 o'clock for the annual steak fry. Football, swimming, volleyball and other sports events will be featured.

Admission is $1 per person, and all members of Sparvets are urged to attend, according to Ron Peterson, newly elected president of the organization. Dress for the affair will be sport clothes.

Golfers NCAA Chances Fade

Spikemen Seek New Relay Mark

By PETER MECKEL

A chance for a new National record in the sprint medley relay may spur Spartan athletes to all-time best performances in tomorrow evening's California Relays in Modesto.

The record the Spartans are after is 3:20.2 set by Kansas in 1954 with Wes Santee at the anchor. It is conceivable the Spartans could break this mark if they live up to their best performances.

Coach Bud Winter has announced Al Ross will lead off for San Jose in the 440 with Ed Hicks and Ron Giardina or Van Parish slated to run the 220 laps. Lang Stanley will go in the 880.

Ross has run :48.6 while Hicks and Parish have run :21.2 and :21.3 respectively. Lang's best is 1:48.6. Total these times together, and the Spartans can run, 3:19.7, half a second under the existing mark.

However, a strong possibility exists that San Jose could break the record and not even win the race. Three other top flight clubs have entered. They are the Los Angeles Striders, Southern California and Los Angeles State. The Striders have such aces as Jim Lea, George Rhoden, Dave James and Bill Weiss, while USC will go with Mike Larrabee, Pat Coyle, Bill Swishhelm and Chuck Kirkby. L.A. State is bound to have a top team with Mal Whitfield anchoring.

San Jose also plans to enter sprint relay teams, but the Spartans don't figure to have a chance against the likes of Texas, Baylor, Abilene Christian, San Diego Navy Training Center and USC. Hicks, Parish, Giardina and Val Daniels are expected to go in the 440 and 880 yard relays.

Five Spartans are set to go in the field events. Lynn Greene and the fast improving Don Malinoff will enter the javelin. Malinoff has thrown 212 ft. in practice and may be ready to surprise his foes.

O. W. Rhodes will go after 14 ft. 4 in. in the pole vault. He narrowly missed this height last week. Ray Goodwin and Ray Ellis are broad jump entries. Goodwin has been bothered by a bad leg all season, but has been practicing taking off on his other foot, which could put him back in action.

The meet shapes up to be one of the best in the 15-year history of the relays.

Eskimos, born and reared near the water, almost never learn to swim—the water's too cold, says the National Geographic Society.

The Student Board of Control tightened a financial noose around the necks of the Spartan golfers yesterday, almost completely choking off the last hopes of a trip to the NCAA championship tourney.

A six-man contingent of golfers have been fighting for monetary aid and on Wednesday were gladdened by the news that the Student Council had passed a measure granting them $800 for the trip. Because the trip does not have the support of Athletic Department leaders William Hubbard and S. Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft, the Board stamped "veto" on the measure.

Ray Freeman, ASB president, announced that the Council will hold a special meeting Monday afternoon to override the Board's move, or to concur with the decision. The Council is expected to concur.

There is no doubt how the golfers feel. The $800 represents less than one half the total amount necessary to finance the trip to Columbus, Ohio. Former golf coach Eddie Duino has promised to aid the State group by soliciting funds at his own (San Jose Country Club) as well as at other local courses. This was the method used to send SJS to the tourney last year.

Still, San Jose's linksmen feel the effort would be worthwhile, and all agree that they would finish no worse than fifth in a field of approximately 40. Last year San Jose tied for sixth place. They point to a fine record which includes double wins over California, Cal Poly, Fresno State and USF. In two matches with Stanford's highly touted Indians, the Spartans broke even.

Coach Walt McPherson says this group is "stronger than last year," and he recommended they be granted permission to play in the tournament. He also points out that this aggregation has an "outstanding" match play record and that the NCAA individual championship is decided on a match play basis.

Bill Hubbard, SJS Athletic Director, turned thumbs down on the trip because despite the team's fine record, they have not done well in tournaments. He directs his remarks to the two tourney outings in which the golfers have failed this year.

In the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate at Pasatiempo, San Jose finished fifth, far off the pace of Fresno State—the champion. Only last week in CBA competition the Spartans' were again beaten by Fresno, but only by a two-point margin. Still the golfers had beaten the Bulldogs twice in match play. To Hubbard, this indicates a tendency to choke up in tournament play.

The Department leaders stated they will not change their minds about sending a team which they don't think warrants such a trip. It appears that only the Student Council has the power to furnish the shove ($800 worth) which will send the Spartans to Columbus.

Fresno State May Leave CBA League

Fresno State may drop out of the California Basketball Association it was learned yesterday through a United Press dispatch.

According to the dispatch, Bulldog Administrators advised the California Collegiate Athletic Association officials that the college would remain a member of the league.

Recently the CCAA avowed at its league meeting that members must play full league schedules in all sports. This means Fresno would be unable to play in the CBA, of which it is currently a probationary member.

Carlos Rojas, chairman of the FSC Board of Athletic Control, reported the decision to remain in the CCAA precludes the continued membership in the CBA beyond the 1957 season.

President Arnold E. Joyal summed up the Fresno position by saying, "I believe our interests and natural rivalries are with the CCAA schools. As far as competition is concerned, I believe schools such as Long Beach State and Los Angeles State will be on equal strength with us in the near future."

Both San Jose State basketball coach Walt McPherson and Athletic Director Wilbur Hubbard expressed surprise over Fresno's plans to withdraw from the CBA. McPherson commented, "I am sorry to see the Bulldogs drop out of our league. We had a well balanced conference with eight teams, and I don't know who will replace them."

Hubbard attributed the Fresno move to football. He said, "In order to play the CCAA schools in football of which it is of equal caliber, Fresno has been forced to slow down its competitive activity in other sports."

Dinner To Wind Up Good Rifle Season

San Jose State's varsity rifle team will conclude one of its most successful seasons with a dinner at Havenly Foods, June 6, it was announced today.

The dinner will honor team coach Sgt. Patrick Whalen who handled the squad for the past three years. Sgt. Whalen has been reassigned to other duty and will be replaced by Sgt. Cunningham of the Army ROTC staff next season.

PCC Hints USC Grid Investigation

VICTORIA, B.C., —(UP)—The Pacific Coast Conference, reeling under blows that threaten to knock the West Coast clear out of the football picture, girded itself today for an investigation into alleged proselyting at the University of Southern California.

The Trojans, always a powerhouse in PCC football, came under the unwelcome glare of the PCC's investigative spotlight when a deputy district attorney from Los Angeles charged USC athletes had received $71,235 from a secret fund over a two-year period.

Already two member schools have suffered severe penalties for permitting athletes to accept under-the-table payments. Washington was hit early this year with a $53,000 "fine" and probation. UCLA, at the PCC meeting here, was clobbered with a $95,000 fine, three-year probation and loss of one year eligibility for all athletes who accepted the illegal payments.

J. Miller Leavy, attorney and prominent UCLA alumnus, charged yesterday a booster club, which he refused to identify, "by its own records shows that in a two-year period . . . $71,235 was distributed to no less than 60 named University of Southern California athletes."

The PCC fathers did not actually name USC as their next target. However, the commission issued a statement shortly after Leavy made his charges known which was widely interpreted as serving notice USC would come under investigation. Leavy, member of UCLA's alumni athletic advisory board, said he was blowing the whistle on his alma mater's arch rival because "the conference in taking action against two of the member schools has taken an arbitrary, unjustified and undemocratic attitude."

The attorney refused to name the athletes alleged to be beneficiaries of the "secret" fund.

Bill Russell To Perform At Compton Track Meet
COMPTON, Calif., —(UP)— Bill Russell, the University of San Francisco's star versatile athlete, has accepted a bid to compete in the high jump at the Compton Invitational Track and Field Meet June 1, meet officials announced today.

In competition this year, the Spartan marksman finished high in all phases. They won the Santa Clara Valley League by edging past University of Santa Clara and the Padres Club of Sunnyvale.

For the second year in a row, the locals finished third in the rugged Northern California Intercollegiate Rifle League and are tentatively ranked 15th nationally, although final tabulations have not yet been released.

Leading the Spartans over the year was Don Bickford with a top average of 283.6 in three-position matches. Trailing him were Ken Storms, 278.2; Al Amaral, 277.6; team captain Bill Rabenstein, 276.6; and Al Truslow, 275.8.

Supporting them were Jerry Russell, Rudy Cordova, John Dunn and Jerry Williams. Bickford, Storms, Amaral, Rabenstein and Truslow all will receive block awards at the dinner with a sixth award to be presented to the man who has done the most to help the team.

Rabenstein, Amaral and Storms are the only graduates, leaving a strong nucleus for next season's competition.

Serving as team officers for the past year were Rabenstein, captain; Dunn, secretary and public relations; and Williams, statistician.

Trojan Boosters Want Alumni To 'Clean Up'

LOS ANGELES, —(UP)—Members of the Trojan Club, one of the University of Southern California's strongest alumni groups, today challenged other alumni organizations in the Pacific Coast Conference to make public their records in order "to clean up the whole mess."

The challenge followed charges by Miller Leavy, deputy district attorney and member of UCLA's alumni athletic advisory board, that USC paid out $71,235 over a two-year period to athletes.

The Trojan Club, although not named by Leavy as the violator, said it was willing to cooperate with the PCC if it could be assured other groups would have the courage "to come clean."
